THE THAMES, LONDON 2012

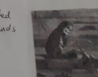

History as water, I lie back, remember it all
You could say I drink to remember
But you end your song, I reflect. There was a whole
In me, a King's daughter lived in a boat
A severed head
fell from its spike, applied Malako
There was fire - birds flailed in me with burning wings - ice - a whole agoasting where I found applied Fog - four months sunless, moonless, spooked by ships -
Food - I flowed into Westminster Hall where lawyers rowed in wherries, worried - bits - the sky was war, I filmed it. Cut.
The Marchioness
My salmon fed apprentices until I choked on sewage; my foul breath shut Parliament.
There was lament
Ella
at every stroke of every oar which dragged the city's large downstream Always bells, their-timed sound, sometimes, in my tamed tides, deep.
Caesar named me
I taste the slowest
A Queen sails now into the sun, double
a thousand proud;
my disseized surface gargling the crown.

Swamp - 1838

We go to a magical forest full of fairies, lovers and a man with a donkey head...

We meet Mina and Michael and Skellig in a garage full of bluebottles...

How does Mina and Michael's friendship develop in ch 17?

Mina and Michael's friendship develops in chapter 17 because they are both dreaming about each other and this shows a connection between each other and they want to know more about one another. They both have some hidden information and it is quite obvious that they are going to tell each other. Furthermore, Mina says that she dreamt about Michael covered in cobwebs and spiders but Michael was covered in cobwebs and spiders the night before.

So maybe she was dreaming about really but from Michael's description, there was a pale face, round and pale inside the darkness of an upstairs window in Mina's house. This was probably Mina. She was either sleepwalking and dreaming but that wouldn't make any sense because she heard the hooting and replied by hooting back of which would mean that she was awake and ~~covering~~ ^{pretending to} Michael that she was sleeping ~~something up~~ when she was sleeping or Michael and Mina shared the same dream and Michael didn't actually go and see "him".

Michael and Mina are sharing a dream then that definitely proves the strong bond of friendship.
